

Flt.-Lt. J. T. Flower, R.A.F. Coastal Command, only son of Mrs. and the late Mr. T. Flower, Harlequin, Radcliffe, who was reported missing from operations last March, and is now officially presumed to have lost his life on March 24th over the Norwegian coast. Flt.-Lt. Flower was 23, joined the R.A.F. early in 1940, and was commissioned two years ago. An old pupil of West Bridgford Secondary School, he was employed at Jessops prior to joining up.